Vancouver, BC – April 3, 2018 – No artificial fragrance, no harmful toxins, no synthetics – just plants: Saje Natural Wellness is pleased to announce the upcoming release of Clean Cleaning, the natural wellness leader's first-ever home cleaning products. Available on April 3rd, Clean Cleaning introduces a line of 100% natural, safe and effective cleaning products formulated with 100% natural ingredients to bring the purity of nature into your home.

Saje Natural Wellness has been a pioneer in the natural healing landscape for over 25 years, providing 100% natural essential oil blends, body care, home environment and aromatherapy products to wellness seekers across North America. Clean Cleaning is the latest addition to their line of over 500 natural products and is free from the harmful synthetic toxins found in many cleaning products – even the “green” ones –, which means you can keep your home as clean as your conscience.

With nothing to hide, every ingredient in the Clean Cleaning line is 100% natural, eco-friendly, and clearly listed on the label. This means you can breathe easy knowing that Saje products were formulated with the health, wellness and safety of your family in mind. Using Clean Cleaning helps protect your family from some of the 200 chemicals we are exposed to as part of our daily routines, including cleaning your home. Choose the cleaning power of nature found in:

- Multi Clean – an invigorating, all-purpose cleaner
- Glistening Glass – a bright citrus surface and glass cleaner
- Bathroom Bright – a renewing tub and tile cleaner
- Dish Wish - a zesty dish soap
- Tidy Trio – a set of biodegradable cleaning cloths

“A vast majority of the chemicals we are unwittingly exposed to every day come from the products used to clean your home, your office – even a hotel lobby,” says Kiara LeBlanc, VP of Brand and Creative Director of Saje Natural Wellness. “So, we asked ourselves: ‘Are these chemicals really needed to effectively clean these areas of exposure?’ And we found that the answer was a resounding ‘no’.”

Like all Saje Natural Wellness products, the Clean Cleaning line is:

- 100% natural, formulated from plant and mineral-based ingredients
- Free from harmful synthetic toxins found in many cleaning products
- Free from artificial fragrances: just natural aromas from pure essential oils

Saje's Clean Cleaning line will be available at www.saje.com and Saje Natural Wellness locations on April 3rd, 2018.
