

Saje Natural Wellness Introduces 100% Natural Baby and Maternity Care Product Line

Nurture with Nature: Saje's new plant-based line offers safe and effective products for the gentlest skin.

Vancouver, BC – May 11, 2018 – Saje Natural Wellness is pleased to announce the upcoming release of Saje Baby, the natural wellness leader's first-ever line of baby and maternity care products. Formulated with 100% natural ingredients, Saje Baby provides unique solutions to everyday ailments for both mom and baby, so you can spend more time snuggling and less time worrying about how to take care of your little one's delicate skin.

Saje Natural Wellness has been a pioneer in the natural healing landscape for over 25 years, offering plant-based essential oil blends, body care, home environment and aromatherapy products to wellness seekers across North America. Saje Baby is the latest addition to their line of over 500 natural products, all free from harmful synthetics and artificial fragrances.

"Our skin absorbs everything we put on it – the good and the bad," shares Saje Natural Wellness CEO, Kate Ross LeBlanc and mother herself. "With baby's sensitive systems absorbing ingredients even more quickly than adults, we believe it's never too early to start your little ones on a path to wellness. Saje celebrates the opportunity to combine scientific facts with product solutions that support 100% natural – starting with our youngest community members."

The journey to motherhood is filled with questions about what's safe and effective, so Saje made it simple. The Baby line offers six, safe and natural products to support wellness throughout the pregnancy journey.

- Splish Splash – Gentle Baby Wash
- Sweet Cheeks – Daily Diaper Rash Ointment
- Mini Mender – Soothing & Restorative Baby Salve
- Mini Moisture – Gentle Baby Lotion
- Chest Mate – Soothing Nipple Cream
- Vitamin Ease – Stretch Mark Minimizing Cream

Like all Saje Natural Wellness products, the Saje Baby line is:

- 100% natural
- Non-Toxic and Hypoallergenic
- Eco-friendly

Saje's baby and maternity care product line will be available at www.saje.com and Saje Natural Wellness locations beginning May 11, 2018.
